‘A Montessori Day for Alice’ – A person living with dementia

Montessori Teachers College Model School is now accepting applications for our September class. Book now to avoid disappointment!

This 4 day course is designed for family members, Personal Support Workers and other care providers and volunteers who are supporting individuals living with early to mid-stage dementia in their homes, in adult day programs, in retirement and long term care homes. The program design provides practical techniques and methods taught by experienced Montessori and Dementia Trainers. It presents the best of both ways to think about and provide support for persons living with dementia and their caregivers, using proven Montessori philosophy and systems.
